

STATE OF MINNESOTA

IN SUPREME COURT

45517

IN RE PROPOSED RULES OF
CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

The legislature of the State of Minnesota, during the 1971 session, passed enabling legislation directing the Minnesota Supreme Court to appoint an Advisory Committee consisting of eight lawyers, two judges of the district court and one judge of the municipal court to assist the Court in considering and preparing pleading, practice, procedure and the forms thereof in criminal actions in all courts of this state.

On July 1, 1971, the Supreme Court, pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 480.059, subd. 2, appointed the following committee:

Frank Claybourne, St. Paul, Chairman

Judge Charles E. Cashman, Owatonna

Henry H. Feikema, Minneapolis

Professor David Graven, Minneapolis

Judge Charles C. Johnson, Mankato

C. Paul Jones, State Public Defender, Minneapolis

John E. MacGibbon, Sherburne County Attorney, Elk River

Henry W. McCarr, Jr., Minneapolis

Ronald I. Meshbesh, Minneapolis

Judge Donald C. Odden, Duluth

Judge Chester G. Rosengren, Fergus Falls

Judge Bruce C. Stone, Minneapolis

It is hereby ordered that these Rules are adopted and shall be distributed to the attorneys and judiciary of this State, to be effective July 1, 1975. The Advisory Committee will continue to serve to monitor said Rules and to accept comments for suggested changes. A hearing shall be held by the Court after one year of operation of these Rules.
